Big New Store.

A. W. KLUTTZ
CHESTER, S. C.

We take inventory Feb. 1st, and as is our usual custom we have gone thru the entire BIG NEW STORE and made gigantic cuts in everything in the winter line. We have blinded our eyes at the original cost and set about with this end in view, that it is better to figure on increase in our Bank account for the remainder of this month than to count the goods. Then, too, Spring goods are beginning to stick their nose into our establishment.

A heavy Fleece Undershirt, or pair heavy fleece drawers, both for men, we formerly sold at 50 cents. During this inventory sale 33 CENTS, or the suit for 65 CENTS.

A Ladies' Heavy Fleece Undershirt, or drawers, Our former price 40 cents, Now 25 cents.

We pay mail, freight or express on all purchases amounting to five dollars or over.

Seldom ever seeing any correspondence from in and around our neighborhood, I'll endeavor to furnish a few dots for next week's issue of our dear old Herald, as I know this will not reach it in time for next week's publication. And right here we must thank Editor Fooshe for enlarging and making our county paper so interesting.

We had quite a surprise on the 24th instant, in the marriage of Mr. Joseph Milling and Miss Susie Clowney. They were quietly married, with only a few relatives and friends to witness the ceremony, their pastor, Rev. Mr. Millard, officiated. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clowney of the Hop community and is a very attractive and popular young lady. The groom, with his many manly qualities and genial disposition has always won a host of friends, and we can safely predict a bright and sunny future for them both. A splendid dinner and cordial reception were given them the next day at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Milling, where they will reside for the present.

Several recent deaths in this and adjoining communities saddened the Christmas holidays somewhat and really made them feel more like Sabbath days and only a time of rest from the year's labors. And now we begin the new year, hardly realizing that Christmas has come and gone. Let us hope that 1906 may still add new laurels to the farmers' brow and give them renewed strength for their trying vocation. For success with them means prosperity for all; and we should feel truly grateful to Hon. Harrie Jordan for his ceaseless and untiring efforts along our line of advancement. But so much has already been said in his praise that I know it is useless for me to try to add another tribute.

Mr. George P. Ladd of Clemson college spent the Christmas holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ladd.

Mr. Thomas Wilkes of the Chester electric light plant spent several days during Christmas with his mother, Mrs. J. M. Wilkes.

Mr. Martin Milling and family have recently moved into their dwelling.

We hear that the Presbyterian manse has been furnished in anticipation of a "coming event."

Our school, under the efficient management of Miss Anna Lou Martin, is making fine progress. Mr. Funderburke, pastor of the Rock Creek Baptist church, has recently resigned to accept a call nearer his home in Union county. He was very much liked, and such voids are not easily filled.

Miss Daisy Crowder is spending while in Newberry county. The Baptist Sunday school had a Christmas tree in the school house at Blair's on the eve of the 25th.

The farmers around here took advantage of the pretty days in November and did some fine plowing. Fortunate for them that they did.

Labor is scarce and hard to get at any price and many of those, who demand high wages, are hardly worth having.

Well, Mr. Editor, for fear I am wasting time only for a very hard fall in the formidable waste basket I'll bring this to a close. Wishing for the News and Herald a prosperous New Year I am and always hope to be.

Frightfully Burned.

Chas. W. Moore, a machinist, of Ford City, Pa., had his hand frightfully burned in an electrical furnace. He applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve with the usual result: "a quick and perfect cure." Greatest healer on earth for Burns, Wounds, Sores, Eczema and Piles. 25c at McMaster Co.'s, and Jno. K. McMaster & Co.'s, druggists.

Nearly A Hundred.

Mrs. Mobley, mother of Messrs Jack and Nathan Mobley, died about noon yesterday at the home of the former on the E. D. Mobley place in Fairfield county, near Alliance. She was nearly 100 years old and died of old age. She has been confined to her bed some time. The burial will be at Concord Grove yard to-day.—Chester Leader.

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Affords immediate relief in Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by all dealers.

A SILVER WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Curlee Celebrate Their Anniversary.

On Thursday evening, the 4th of January, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Curlee celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding day. The occasion was one of genuine enjoyment to all those gathered to wish them a successful journey to the golden and diamond celebrations. Silver formed the basis of the decorations while trailing vines of smilax and potted plants interspersed with callalilies and narcissus contrasted very pleasingly with the color of the evening. Concealed behind an embankment of ferns and palms in the spacious hallway, the orchestra composed of a number of the bride's friends, added very much to the pleasure of the occasion. Quite a number of beautiful old songs, were sung, the most appropriate of them being "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

The dining room where a delicious salad course was served was beautiful with its wax tapers supported by silver candelabra and its decorations of silver and green. Conspicuous among the decorations in this room were the numbers "1881-1906," done in heavy silver above the handsome old mahogany sideboard. The souvenirs were bits of the bride's cake, "to dream on," in tiny silver boxes bearing the dates of the marriage, and the present occasion.

Four of the daughters, Misses Mable, Leonora, Elizabeth and Lucile, met the guests at the door. They were received in the parlor by Mrs. J. M. Jennings of Columbia, Mrs. Leonora Hoffman of Sumter and Miss Kate Jennings of Columbia, while in the parlor to the right of the entrance the bride, handsome in her bridal attire of heavy silk, and the groom stood to receive the congratulations of their numerous friends.

Mrs. Curlee is a daughter of Capt. R. H. Jennings of Columbia, State treasurer. Mr. Curlee is one of the most successful planters of the State. The many handsome presents received attest the popularity of this very useful couple.

"Isn't that disgusting!" exclaimed Crabbe, in the park. "Look at that fellow with his arm around the girl's waist!" "Oh," replied his wife. "I guess you don't like to see any one making love anyway!" "Well, if people must make love it ought to be home made."—Philadelphia Press.

A Healing Gospel.

Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist church, Delair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at McMaster Co.'s, and Jno. H. McMaster & Co.'s, drug stores. Price 50c.
